

Local Membership

Chesapeake Planned Giving Council

Professional

- Network with your peers and connect with new colleagues
- Learn best practices and gain a different perspective
- Connect to the regional philanthropic community
- Enhance your leadership skills as a chapter volunteer
- Access to complimentary career posting on our website

Educational

- Gain insights to issues affecting gift planning from local and nationally recognized experts
- Reinforce skills and become more proficient in practices
- Share ideas with professionals who serve the needs of donors and clients
- Maximize your time by attending convenient and concise in-person events

National Membership

Charitable Gift Planners

Professional

- Locate and connect with charitable gift planners from across the nation via our member directory
- Share ideas, ask questions and solve problems with colleagues who share your interests, challenges and goals
- Stay up to date on issues that affect your donors, the gift planning profession and the nonprofit sector

Educational

- Access articles, guidelines, model documents and samples from our member-exclusive resource library
- Enjoy Savings on Conferences, Exams and Educational Materials
- Receive demographic and salary data, Gift Planner Profile surveys and research on the latest trends and best practices in charitable gift planning

Chesapeake Planned Giving Council

Executive Plaza II, 11350 McCormick Rd. Suite 904, Hunt Valley, MD 21031

www.chesapeakeplannedgiving.org • (410)527-0780 • info@chesapeakeplannedgiving.org